FALL OF THE SULTAN NEAR AT HAND.

City of Constantinople in a State of Anarchy—Provisional Government Suggested—Late Reports Say Thousands of Armenians Have Been Killed at the Capital.

London, Aug. 30.—A dispatch to the Chronicle from Rome says that private letters just received from Constantinople state that the Turkish government is on the eve of being overthrown, and that a provisional government will be appointed.

A dispatch to the Daily News from Constantinople says that on Thursday it was estimated that from 3,000 to 4,000 persons had been killed in the riots in the different portions of the city. All Europeans en route for this city have been turned back by the cordons of troops occupying the public places, the wharves and bridges. The whole thing could be stopped in an hour if the government desired, but the members of the mob pretend to have received permission to loot, burn and destroy the Armenian quarters for a certain period of time. It is feared that there will be serious trouble in the provinces.

A dispatch to the Times from Athens says that passengers just arrived on the steamships from Constantinople describe in a vivid and graphic fashion the scenes in the harbor at the time of their departure. Several Armenians seeking refuge on board the foreign steamers were pursued by Moslem fanatics and students from the Mohammedan schools in boats. In every instance the Armenians were killed outright by the zealots.

Constantinople, Aug. 30.—When the Armenians seized the Ottoman bank Wednesday last Edgar Vincent and some of the other directors escaped to the roof, and when the troops arrived the latter fired haphazard at everybody appearing at the windows. Thus several clerks who were trying to escape were killed. While the fighting was proceeding hundreds of Mussulmans, armed with cudgels and led by the Sofias, gathered in groups, overran the quarter and killed or assaulted all the Armenians they met.

The scene resembled the riots of September, 1895. Several shops in the Galata were plundered and panic spread over the whole city, especially in the Pera quarter, where two bombs were thrown into the midst of a group of soldiers, several of whom were wounded. The people generally were afraid to venture into the street. The officials of the British postoffice were virtually prisoners until night, and the mail was not dispatched.

The British charge d'affaires, Michael Herbert, telegraphed Tewfik Pasha, the Turkish minister for foreign affairs, urging the prompt restoration of order.

It also appears that while the Ottoman bank was being attacked circulars were delivered at the different embassies, signed by the Armenian revolutionary committee, declaring that they intended to seize the bank and hold it for two days, during which they wanted the powers to intervene in the settlement of the Armenian question, and adding that if the authorities tried to recapture the bank they would blow it up with all its securities.

Mr. Vincent went to the Yildiz kiosk in the evening to see the sultan, and while there a message was received from the revolutionists saying that they were willing to surrender on condition that they were allowed to leave the country. Mr. Vincent accordingly returned to the bank and parleyed with the leaders of the Armenians through the windows. The Armenians had revolvers in their hands and told him they had two of the directors and a number of the employees of the bank as hostages and that they had seized the bank in order to make demonstration, not against the Turks nor the bank, but against the powers, who had abandoned the Armenians. They added that they had selected the Ottoman bank because it was the most suitable place and expressed their willingness to surrender, provided they were allowed to retain revolvers, while yielding up the bombs in their possession and receiving safe conducts out of the country. These terms were agreed upon and the Armenians surrendered and were conveyed on board Mr. Vincent's yacht Gulnare.

PRAISE TO YOUNG MEN.

Maj. McKinley to the League of Republican Clubs.

Canton, O., Aug. 29.—A committee of fifteen from the National Republican league reached here at 1:30 Friday afternoon from Milwaukee. They took dinner with Private Secretary Boyle and called on Maj. McKinley at 2:30. Mr. John Goodnoe, of Minneapolis, spoke for President Woodmansee of the league, who could not be here. Maj. McKinley responded briefly, praising the work accomplished by the league.

A delegation of 300 persons from the East Ohio united brethren conference followed closely upon the call of the league committee. Bishop J. S. Mills made the presentation for the party. To-day is to be a busy day for Mr. McKinley. The first delegation to arrive was the commercial men from Chicago. Then came the supreme lodge, Knights of Pythias, from Cleveland, followed by the Lisbon, O., farmers, and later by the German-American citizens from Cleveland, a large delegation, and the Workmen's McKinley club from Columbus, O. Tuesday next the editors of West Virginia will call.

Big Lockout at Glasgow.

Glasgow, Aug. 29.—The Federated shipbuilders of Carlisle have issued a notice to the effect that all members of trade unions will be dismissed from their employ—four divisions of them on Sept. 12, three divisions on the following Saturday, and three more on the Saturday of the succeeding week—unless the strike of Dunsmuir & Jackson's engineers is ended and the men return to their work at the yards of Dunsmuir & Jackson by Sept. 12. The movement affects all the engineers employed at the Clyde, at Belfast, and on the northeast coast, including 19,000 of the Armstrong company's men.

Candidate Mobbed in Arkansas.

Fort Smith, Ark., Aug. 29.—Congressman H. A. Dinsmore of the Fifth Arkansas district and United States minister to Korea, was mobbed at a political meeting at Englatine, Van Buren county, Wednesday, and sustained injuries which will confine him to his bed for several days to come. Dinsmore spoke at Englatine Wednesday and divided time with Jerry Scanlan, a local populist candidate. During a heated discussion the speakers became involved in a personal altercation and the crowd mobbed the congressman.

Sioux City (Iowa) Bank Fails.

Sioux City, Iowa, Aug. 29.—The Sioux National bank, long considered one of the strongest institutions in the city, failed Friday. Enormous withdrawals have been made in its deposits for some time, under the pressure of which the bank was forced to the wall. Not since the panic of 1893 swept away its surplus and much of its capital has it been on a strong footing. The officers say depositors will be paid in full, and have issued an encouraging statement of assets and liabilities.

Ex-State Treasurer Freed.

Little Rock, Ark., Aug. 29.—The cases against William E. Woodruff, ex-state treasurer of Arkansas, who was indicted, tried, convicted and sentenced to the state penitentiary for one year on the charge of having misappropriated $192,000 of state funds during his nine years' incumbency of the office, but secured a reversal of the opinion of the lower court and a change of venue to Perry county, Friday, were nolle prossed at Perryville.

Walling Wants More Time.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 29.—George Walling, the attorney for Walling, has filed a petition with the clerk of the court of appeals for the extension of sixty days' time for filing a transcript. The time expires Sept. 3, and Judge Helm is in Michigan. Judge Hazelrigg probably will grant the extension.

Michigan Bankers to Meet.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Aug. 29.—The annual meeting of the Michigan State Bankers' association will be held at this city next week, beginning Tuesday and lasting three days. It is expected that the attendance will be of the papers and the special.

THE TRADE REVIEW BY DUN & COMPANY

BUSINESS PROSPECTS SHOW AN IMPROVEMENT.

Gold Is Returning to the United States in a Steady Stream—Iron and Steel Trades "Wait on the Election"—Record of Week's Failures Shows Heavy Increase.

New York, Aug. 29.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: Clearing house certificates have not been issued, but instead gold is coming here largely on the swiftest steamers, about $10,000,000 being already on the way. Higher lending rates bring it, notwithstanding foreign events which disturb London markets, and growing confidence in the monetary future of the country helps.

Liabilities in failures for three weeks ending Aug. 20 were $20,932,285, against $6,519,366 last year and $8,214,470 in 1894. Manufacturing failures were $11,199,938, against $3,517,377 last year and $2,843,338 in 1894; trading failures were $4,904,362, against $2,852,989 last year and $3,884,414 in 1894, while brokers and other commercial concerns added $4,827,985, against $149,000 last year and $1,884,718 in 1894. The stoppage of Hilton, Hughes & Co. this week is, of course, not included in these figures.

The stoppage of works also continues, including among other iron concerns the Illinois Steel plant at Hammond, Ind., and the Lakeside Nail works there. Disruption of the Tin Plate association results from inability of many concerns to go on paying the wages demanded, and will presumably be followed by the stoppage of some others. Iron works are getting very light new business, many contracts having been deferred "until after the election," and there is so little doing that quotations are almost nominal.

Coke production at Connellsville decreased 10,000 tons last week, a further decrease being expected. Anthracite has again been advanced 25 cents since Aug. 1.

Minor metals are dull; tin, 13.35 cents for spot, copper said to be sold at 10.5 cents, though 10.85 is the lowest open quotation, and lead only 2.65 cents, with small dealings.

Leather is a shade weaker, and hides again lose about 2 per cent for the week.

Sales of wool, including some for speculation and some for export, have been, in four weeks, only 9,595,300 pounds, against 23,200,400 last year, and 29,135,600 in 1892. Actual quotations are hard to get, but sales to realize are at bargain prices, and exports of domestic and shipments of foreign are in considerable quantities. No gain is seen in the demand for woolen goods.

Cotton shows a stronger tone, and in a few qualities slightly better prices, but the change has been in selling from store without disposition to order ahead of current wants.

Speculation in products caused an advance of 1.62 cents in wheat, but by Thursday it had been lost only to rise again and close at nearly the top. Heavy western receipts continue, low as prices are, amounting for four weeks to 14,896,947 bushels, against 10,665,268 bushels last year, but begin to be balanced by gain in exports, which have been for the week 2,074,516 bushels, four included, against 1,373,356 bushels last year, and for four weeks 6,967,176 bushels, against 4,268,589 bushels last year. Corn declined Thursday to 26.25 cents here, and 20.37 at Chicago, which is close to the lowest ever known. Crop advices continue most favorable, but western receipts indicate less disposition to sell at current figures.

Cotton has reacted sharply from its advance to 8.62 cents, and 8 is now quoted with little demand.

Failures for the week have been 288 in the United States, against 186 last year, and thirty-three in Canada, against forty-two last year.

Disorder at Ontonagon.

Houghton, Mich., Aug. 29.—The Houghton county companies of the Fifth regiment Michigan State troops were notified Friday by wire by Adj. Gen. Cook of Lansing to prepare for departure to Ontonagon on short notice on call of the sheriff of that county. These orders were modified, read that on request from the sheriff for troops headquarters at Lansing should be notified at once. Lawlessness is feared, and threats of lynching have been made against officers of the Diamond Match company.

Italian Legation As Protection.

Colon, Colombia, Aug. 29.—The Italian legation in de Janeiro has applied for protection, and has dispatched for advice as to what to do on account of the anti-Italian riots. "Down with Italy; viva Menel." The situation is growing worse.

For Burns an American to Death.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 29.—Lieut. Alfred, of Gen. Macco's army, arrived here from Cuba Friday. He says that a month ago Gen. Weyler discovered a Cuban newspaper in the pocket of an American named Charles Churchill, of Pennsylvania. By Weyler's command Churchill was wrapped in an American flag and burned to death. Four American sea captains were witnesses to this.

TALKS TO FARMERS FROM THE TRAIN

MR. BRYAN SPEAKS IN WESTERN NEW YORK.

Big Barbecue at Knowlesville—Chairman Jones Appoints An Advisory Committee—Populists Arranging to Notify Their Presidential Nominees—Other News of a Political Nature.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Aug. 29.—William J. Bryan on Friday spoke to over 25,000 people, of whom 20,000 were gathered around the roasted oxen of the Orleans county barbecue. Mr. Bryan is the first man nominated for president of the United States to make a campaign speech from the platform of a trolley car. This he did in the morning in Tonawanda and the innovation scored a hit. For the first time since he began his active campaign he gave out an opinion of the outlook for publication. In speaking of the Buffalo meetings he said:

"I am more than gratified with the demonstration. It far surpassed anything which I had expected. I am also pleased to find so unanimous a sentiment in favor of the indorsement of the action of the Chicago convention. From what I have seen in New York and from sentiments expressed by members of the state organization I am firmly satisfied that the state convention will indorse the platform as well as the ticket. Some of the democrats may oppose the platform, but it is the national platform and will be accepted as a whole."

This opinion is regarded as proof that Mr. Bryan believes that his New York trip has been a vote-maker for his ticket. Democrats who have been active in arranging meetings for Mr. Bryan frankly said all along that he was stumping the state for the purpose of securing an indorsement of the Chicago ticket and platform by the New York state convention. It is conceded on all sides that Bryan, Sewall and free silver at 16 to 1 will be indorsed by the state convention next week in Buffalo.

Jones Appoints a Cabinet.

Chicago, Aug. 29.—Chairman Jones of the democratic national committee appointed an advisory committee to assist in the management of the national campaign, composed of two silver republicans, two populists and two members of the national silver party. This advisory committee consists of Messrs. Henry M. Teller of Colorado, Fred T. Dubois of Idaho, Marion Butler of North Carolina, G. T. Washburn of Massachusetts, I. N. Stevens of Colorado, and George P. Keeney of California. These gentlemen will be frequently at democratic headquarters in this city, and will aid the democratic campaign committee by their advice and counsel in all questions.

To Notify the Nominees.

Washington, Aug. 29.—As a result of the determination among populist leaders to notify Bryan and Watson of their nomination by the populists, the formal letter of notification is now being prepared. The notification will probably occur at Lincoln and Atlanta, but the details are subject to the wishes of the members of the committee on notification, of which Senator Allen is chairman. The letter now in course of preparation will be submitted to the notification committee for their approval. If they desire to meet and proceed in a body to see Mr. Bryan and Mr. Watson then such a course will be adopted, and a time set for the visits.

Western Speakers Coming East.

Denver, Colo., Aug. 29.—Senator Henry M. Teller will deliver a political speech at Colorado Springs Monday night, Aug. 31. After that he will probably make a series of speeches in California, and then go east to take part in the campaign in Illinois and Indiana. Thomas has gone to Maine to take part in the campaign, and T. M. Patterson will go to Chicago next week to place himself as a speaker under the direction of Chairman Jones. It is announced that Senator Teller will issue an open letter answering the financial arguments of McKinley's letter of acceptance.

Chairman Butler Satisfied.

Washington, Aug. 29.—Chairman Butler of the populist executive committee says that he knows no grounds for the report sent out from Maine to the effect that Sewall will be withdrawn in favor of Watson. Chairman Butler declined to talk on the other features of the dispatch, regarding them as not of as much importance as the feature mentioned above. He said that the matter of fusion in a number of states was going along all right, and he was satisfied with the reported fusion in Idaho.

Will Support Bryan and Watson.

Little Rock, Ark., Aug. 29.—In view of the opposition evinced toward Mr. Bryan by the united populist party of Arkansas since his nomination, an editorial appearing in the Dollar, the state organ of that party, is considered significant by the democrats of the state, all of whom will support the Chicago nominees. The editorial concludes: "We will support Bryan for president, and ask our democratic friends who love fair play to support Watson."

Poor Trilby has dropped out of sight.

WILL NAME A TICKET.

Chairman Bynum Says Gold Democrats Are in Earnest.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 29.—Chairman Bynum of the executive committee of the gold democratic party and those associated with him at headquarters, have found it necessary to deny emphatically once more that there will be any flirting with the republicans at next week's national convention. Mr. Bynum says that the delegates will come here for the purpose of making a platform and nominating a ticket and nothing can swerve them from that purpose. No effort is made to disguise the fact that there are anti-silver democrats who are not in favor of nominating a ticket, but the executive officers of the party say these men will have no part in the deliberations of the convention.

It seems certain now that there will be full delegations from forty-one states. While no official information as to the temporary chairmanship will be given out until Tuesday, it seems certain that Roswell P. Flower, ex-governor of New York, will be the man. It is certain now that it will not be Bourke Cochran, who has had an opportunity to connect himself with the movement, but has not taken advantage of it. Not a word has come from Mr. Cochran, and so far as the leaders here know he will not attend the convention. There has been some hope all along that Senator Hill might decide to come out to the convention, but it is pretty well understood now that he will support the democratic ticket.

Chairman Bynum of the executive committee and Secretary Wilson of the national committee have declared all along that it was unreasonable to expect any communication from the president, and none is expected.

PYTHIANS LEAVE CLEVELAND.

Sessions of the Supreme Lodge Practically Concluded.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 29.—The nineteenth biennial encampment of the Knights of Pythias is practically at an end. Many of the Knights have left for their homes and the remainder will have departed by Monday next, the intervening time being devoted to pleasure.

At Friday's session of the Rathbone Sisters the following officers were elected: Supreme chief, Mrs. Ida M. Weaver, of Idaho; supreme senior, Mrs. J. B. S. Neubert, of Kansas; supreme junior, Mrs. Nellie Scattergood, of Michigan; supreme manager, Mrs. Flora Weatherbee, of Minnesota; supreme mistress of records, Mrs. W. D. Wood, of Missouri; supreme mistress of finance, Mrs. Emma M. Bell, of Ohio; supreme guard, Mrs. Sarah A. Pocock of Washington; past supreme chief, Mrs. Hattie A. Robinson, of Ohio.

Signs the 60-Cent Scale.

Terre Haute, Ind., Aug. 29.—The Island City Coal company of Linton, A. M. Ogle, president, has signed an agreement to pay the miners the scale asked, 60 cents per ton. The Island company is the third largest in the state. The agreement is considered a great victory for the miners, especially so as Mr. Ogle is vice-president of the Bituminous Operators' association. The agreement is to hold good until next May, subject to any state agreement or scale which may be signed before then. Other operators say they will not do as Ogle has done; that they want to see whether he can sell coal mined at 60 cents.

Deed of an Insane Mother.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 29.—Neighbors who broke into the home of C. W. Green, traveling passenger agent of the Big Four railway, Friday forenoon, found the three children—two boys, aged respectively 13 and 4 years, and a girl aged 9—lying dead in bed. They had been shot and instantly killed as they slept. In another part of the house Mrs. Green, also dead, lay upon the floor. The woman, supposedly while temporarily insane, had apparently fired at and killed her children and then killed herself, using a revolver.

New Steel Pool Formed.

Cresson, Pa., Aug. 29.—The meeting of the billet pool was largely attended by the principal manufacturers of the country, was very harmonious, and its business was completed within half an hour. As a result of the meeting, the manufacturers of open hearth steel have formed a pool within the billet pool, to be conducted in the same manner as the Bessemer pool. A price of $22.25, delivered at Pittsburg, was established, which is $2 a ton higher than the Bessemer price.

Chornski Beats Joe McAuliffe.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 29.—Big Joe McAuliffe was knocked out in the fourth round Friday night by Joe Chornski, in what was to have been a ten-round contest. Chornski assumed the aggressive from the start and hit McAuliffe when and where he pleased.

Gardiner Makes a New World's Record.

Bridgeport, Conn., Aug. 29.—Arthur Gardiner distinguished himself Friday by making a bicycle world's record in the one mile, single paced, covering the distance in 1:57 2-5. He also won the mile open professional in 2:09.

Knights of the Globe.

Freeport, Ill., Aug. 29.—The seventh anniversary of the order of Knights of the Globe was celebrated here Friday, there being 7,000 visitors in the city to take part in and witness the exercises.

A BIG FIRE RAGED AT ELAND JUNCTION

HEAVY LOSS AT THE WISCONSIN VILLAGE.

Rideout & Sons' Lumber Yard Is Laid Waste, and a Million and a Half Feet of Stock Is Destroyed—Loss $20,000 and the Insurance $11,000—State Specials.

Eland Junction, Wis., August 29.—[Special]—A very disastrous fire raged in this village this morning, destroying the extensive lumber yards of Rideout & Son. A million and a half feet of lumber was destroyed and the loss will probably reach $20,000. The insurance is but $11,000.

Ashland, Wis., Aug. 28.—[Special]—The heavy rains of the past few hours proved a blessing here, and tend to check the forest fire, which have threatened the city for three days. Thousands of men have been fighting the flames for two days. At Benoit, a small station near here, the entire lumber yards of the Benoit Lumber Company were destroyed, inflicting a loss of fifteen thousand dollars. Many homesteads are burned, and the people were driven to the city for safety, the danger is now thought to be past.

Young People's Alliance.

Oshkosh, Wis., Aug. 29.—The annual convention of the Young People's Alliance of the German Evangelical Church of Wisconsin opened here Friday. There are about 125 in attendance. Bishop Breyfogle of Pittsburg will deliver the annual sermon.

WELCOME LI HUNG CHANG.

Distinguished Statesman of China Arrives at New York Friday.

New York, Aug. 29.—Li Hung Chang, ambassador and envoy extraordinary of China, has reached New York and was given a royal welcome to the United States.

The American Line steamship St. Louis, on which the distinguished traveler was a passenger, was sighted east of Fire Island at 9 o'clock. At 11:58 she passed in at Sandy Hook, and a few minutes later arrived off quarantine. There she was boarded by government officers from the cruiser Dolphin, who extended to the Chinese statesman, on behalf of President Cleveland, a welcome to the United States.

The St. Louis moved up the harbor in a sort of triumphal procession, greeted on all sides with the tooting of steam whistles and other salutes, and eventually reached her dock at 12:30 p. m. But the party was not able to land until some time later, owing to the necessary delay in warping the ship alongside of her wharf.

The yellow standard of China was loudly cheered by the crowds about the wharf as the bow of the big steamship neared the landing place of the American line.

CASE FOR JUDGE LYNCH.

Brutal Outrage by Three Men Near Libertyville, Iowa.

Ottumwa, Ia., Aug. 29.—There are strong indications of a lynching party at Fairfield. Thursday about noon three men drove up to the country home of E. W. Warner, at Libertyville. They entered the house heavily masked, finding only the daughter, Nellie Warner, aged 20 years, at home. The brutes bound and gagged her and then ransacked the house. They secured nothing but some jewelry. They ate the dinner she had prepared, and then each assaulted her.

After they had departed the girl succeeded in releasing herself and gave the alarm. Sheriff Black of Fairfield and a posse of 300 started in pursuit. Near Bladensburg they found three men in a buggy, answering the description given by the girl. With difficulty the sheriff restrained his posse from wreaking summary vengeance on them. They were taken to Fairfield and lodged in jail.

WE MAY HAVE TO PAY.

Lynching of Italians in Louisiana Likely to Prove Expensive.

Washington, Aug. 29.—The state department has received the report of the governor of Louisiana on the recent lynchings in that state. In a general way the report states that, after a thorough investigation by the state authorities, no affirmative evidence can be found that the men lynched were Italian subjects. It cannot be learned either that they had taken out American naturalization papers. The governor says that every effort is being made by the authorities of the state to find the perpetrators of the deed. As the governor's report does not appear to mitigate the circumstances of the affair, there seems to be little doubt that the United States will have to pay an indemnity.

Buffalo Bill's Riders Form Great Subjects For Camera Cranks.

Thursday was a great day for amateur photographers. On the arrival of the Buffalo Bill aggregation of riders at the fair grounds, and as early as 6 o'clock in the morning, there were at least twenty camera fiends present, who "shot" the riders from all sides and corners. The different races formed subjects that photographers were glad to get a chance to snap, especially in the case of the Cossacks and Arabs. In the early morning, as the Indian squaw was erecting the tent and making a straw bed, the lazy Redman himself, was enclosed within the blanket, smoking a cigarette.

TWO LADIES ON A BICYCLE TRIP

The Misses Booth Are Enroute From Juneau to Chicago.

Two young ladies passed through the city yesterday on an extended bicycle trip—from Juneau to Chicago. The young ladies proved were Misses Blanche and Jessie Booth and they were on their way home after an outing at the Badger city. They ride sixty miles a day on an average and from this city they went to Beloit where they will visit friends for a short time. Ralph Sarasy of this city, accompanied them from Juneau, where he has been visiting friends for the past week.

MAY ORGANIZE A BALL TEAM.

Jamesville Has Plenty of Talent For a Good Nine.

The organization of a first class home base ball team is now being discussed. Jamesville has plenty of good material and with plenty of good teams from near by surrounding towns, there is little doubt but what ball games in this city would pay, although the management of Athletic Park will not rent it for Sunday games. The home team would no doubt be composed of Crall, Wilbur, Schickler, Cooley, Holloran, Brewer, McGinley, Sullivan and Morrissey.

LARGE CROWD TO GO TO ST. PAUL

Rate For the Reunion Is the Lowest Ever Given.

The railroads now estimate that Jamesville will be represented in St. Paul the coming week by 200 people. Agent Potter, of the Northwestern, has been ordered to have on hand 150 tickets to accommodate the crowds and it is thought that fifty more will be needed.

"This is the cheapest fare from Jamesville to St. Paul ever known," said Agent Potter "and the people are not slow in realizing the fact."

BELLS AND LAMPS SOLD CHEAP.

One Dealer Netted Only $5 Profit on a Big Order.

With the sudden boom in the bicycle lamp and bell trade, it was thought that a number of the local dealers would make a neat sum, but such has not been the result. One dealer remarked last evening that he had disposed of over sixty bells and forty lamps and said he had made less than $5 profit. Bells of a medium grade are selling as low as 15 cents, while the so-called $5 lamps have been selling for $3.25 and $3.50.

SOLDIERS ARE BUILDING A FORT

Militia Men Are Busy On the Mayflower Park Bluff Today.

Light Infantry men were busy today, erecting the fort that will form a most prominent figure in the coming military festival to be given at Mayflower Park next Tuesday. The fort will be situated on the high hill opposite the park and on the account of its being rather a difficult place to reach from all sides, the young men will have their hands full in erecting it. It will be built mostly of oil barrels and lumber.

CITY ROLLER IN FINE CONDITION

Alderman Millmore Says the Machine is Ready For Work.

The steam roller is in perfect condition. Alderman Chaucey K. Millmore says, regardless of the reports to the contrary. For several days Thomas Lynch, the well known mechanic, has been working on the machine and putting it in first class condition so that today, it is in as good, if not better shape, than the day it left the shop. It is ready for use at any moment.

MISS SHORTNEY GOES TO WICHITA

She Will be the Matron in a Large Hospital at That Place.

Miss Lettie Shortney, of this city, has left for Wichita, Kansas, where she will act in the capacity of matron at one of the leading hospitals of that city. Miss Shortney is well adapted to fill the place, she having received a thorough course of training in the Milwaukee hospital and also at the Cook County hospital at Chicago.

ST. PAUL COMPANY LAYING RAILS.

George Belmont, of This City, In Charge of the Work.

Thirty men under the direction of Road Master George Bennett, of this city, are now engaged in laying new steel rails on the Mineral Point division of the St. Paul road. The work requires the distributing of the rails from this city, they being shipped here from the factory. The men are now working between Gratiot and Shullsburg.

CYCLONE STRIKES THE CIRCUS

Wallace Brothers' Show Suffers a Big Loss Several Men Injured.

Wallace Brothers' circus, with which W. W. Parmelee, formerly of this city, is connected, is at present playing in "hard luck," the last disaster being the result of a cyclone at Huntington, Indiana. The animal and big tents were torn to pieces, while four men were seriously injured by falling poles.

DEDICATE A CHURCH AT EVANSVILLE

EVENT WILL OCCUR ON FRIDAY, SEPT. 4.

Well Known Ministers to Take Part in The Exercises—A Republican Rally At Spring Valley—A Beloit Man Hurt—Contest at Evansville—Other News of the County.

On Friday afternoon and evening, September 4, the examination and ordination of the pastor and the dedication of the church building will take place at the Congregational church, Evansville. Examination at 1:30 p. m.; ordination at 3:30 p. m. Dedication of building will be in the evening. Among the speakers who are expected to participate in the exercises are Dr. Updike, of Madison; Dr. Leavitt, Rev. W. W. Sleeper and Prof. H. M. Whitney, of Beloit. All are cordially invited to attend the exercises both afternoon and evening.

Suffrage Contest At Evansville.

The first of a series of Equal Suffrage Contests will be held in Magee's hall at Evansville, Thursday evening, September 3d. Misses Hallie Ames, Pearl Campbell, Lula Weaver, Amy Johnson and May Savage will compete for the prize. This kind of home entertainment will be popular in Evansville. The people have quickly recognized the benefit derived from oratorical competition by those who participate. Several fine solos, duets, etc., will be on the program.

J. G. Monahan Will Speak on Wednesday

The opening of the republican campaign for the town of Spring Valley, will be on Wednesday evening, Sept. 2. The local committee have been fortunate in securing the services of Hon. J. G. Monahan of Darlington, as speaker for the occasion. Mr. Monahan is one of the best campaign speakers in the state, and we have no hesitation in saying that he will interest and instruct all who hear him. The meeting will be held in the opera house.

Hand Hurt by a Horse.

Merton Smith of the firm of Smith & Purves, of Beloit, had his hand severely hurt while leading a horse. The halter strap became twisted about his hand and the horse becoming fractious at the moment rendered it impossible for Mr. Smith to extricate himself. When he finally loosened his hand one finger had been nearly pulled off.

Rally in Newark Township.

A club was organized with V. S. Davis for president and Henry Nelson for secretary at the republican rally in Newark, and a meeting of the new organization will be held tonight. J. M. Whitehead and T. W. Goldin gave some clear pointers on the much discussed money question at the rally.

Former Evansville Woman Is Dead

News has reached Evansville from Dakota of the death of Emma, wife of Rilus Love, which occurred Aug. 12. Mr. Love will be remembered by the older residents of that city, having played for many dances here and in that vicinity.

Wm. Butler and Mrs. Della Pooley, of Hanover, were married at the residence of the officiating magistrate, Orfordville, Aug. 17, 2896 by Justice George Helmolt.

Waldron-Hawkins.

Sessie Waldron, of Orfordville and Miss Nellie Hawkins, of Spring Grove, were married by Justice George Helmolt at Orfordville, Aug. 23.

Seminary to Open

The fall term of the Evansville seminary opens Sept. 1. Present indications are that there will be a larger attendance than ever before.

Tent Meetings Continue

The tent meetings at Evansville continue this week, next today evening being the last meeting.

FRANK GOODMAN IS HOME AGAIN

Jamesville Boy Returns From Milwaukee Hospital Much Improved.

Frank Goodman the seven year old son of Michael Goodman, of this city, is home after spending the past two years in St. Joseph's Hospital, Milwaukee where he received treatment for terrible burns received in a fire in this city two years ago last June. When the boy was first admitted to the hospital the skin grafting process was tried several times, but it proved a failure each time. Nature did what science could not accomplish however and now he is considered well enough to be sent home. St. Joseph's hospital is a German institution and since the boy has been there he has picked up the language and can now talk German fluently.

SHOWMEN SEE FORMER QUARTERS

Buffalo Bill's Men Were Surprised At the Change.

Three members of the Buffalo Bill show, who were employed in caring for the horses, paid a visit to the former winter quarters of the Burr Robbins show in the Spring Brook addition, on Thursday afternoon. These three men formerly traveled with the Robbins show and spent three winters in this city. They were much surprised at the change in the Spring Brook addition during the years of their absence, and since the burning of the big horse barn, the only building that reminded them of "old times," was the old animal house.

"CORNERING" MONEY.

What nonsense this talk is about "cornering" the money of the country. Money is worth nothing to bankers and capitalists when it is withdrawn from circulation and locked up in their safes and vaults. This kind of cornering simply means the voluntary surrender of chances of profit, and men of that class are not in the habit of having fun with themselves in that way. It is to their advantage to keep their money employed, and not to let it lie in idle piles for the purpose of annoying those who would like to have it. They favor the largest possible use of money, not from patriotic or philanthropic motives, but because that is their source of gain. It is their constant study to maintain the activity of their capital, for the simple reason that when it is inactive it yields them nothing.

There are times, of course, when banks are slow to lend money or capitalists to make investments, on account of conditions of disturbance and uncertainty; but it is nonsense to say that they deliberately go to work to prevent the use of money when the conditions are reasonably safe. They are more apt to take risks that they should avoid in that relation than to neglect good opportunities. Their prosperity is dependent upon that of the people at large; their money is productive only when it is helping to advance the welfare of others.

When democratic stump speakers attempt, as they have repeatedly done of late, to make it appear that this campaign is a fight between employers and those who are employed they are playing a fire as well as misrepresenting.

might mean either political support or personal courtesy, just as circumstances may make desirable.

Tom Watson's "chewing the rag" isn't worrying some democrats half as much as Sewall's plugging the bung hole.

The gall displayed by stump speakers who ask pensioners to vote to cut their pension in half is near kin to impudence.

Hoke Smith might have known before he resigned that he was too fat to successfully assume the role of martyr.

Senator Stewart will probably soon deny that he has a personal interest in the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1.

Senator Dubois seems to have miscalculated the strength of his Idaho enemies.

Mr. Cleveland's cabinet was 1 to 7 for the 16 to 1 candidate; now it is 8 to 0.

DIED WHILE IN THE SULKY.

Horseman Who Was Well Known Here, Meets a Tragic Death.

John Holmes, an Oakshof horseman, who was well known in this city, was stricken dead with heart disease, one hundred yards from the finish, in the third heat of the 2:28 race at Washington park, Green Bay, yesterday. Hanging limp and lifeless in the sulky, his hands retained hold of the reins until after the final h, which was one of the most thrilling and sensational ever witnessed on a race track. Holmes was driving Bi abik, a horse that has frequently raced here, and was at Janesville last month. The horses turned into the home stretch, Happy Bird, Icicle Maid, Biwabik in the lead, and close together. Happy Bird had the pole, with Biwabik next, and Icicle Maid on the outside. When at the distance post Holmes was seen suddenly to lean over sideways, apparently watching the action of the horse's feet. Still farther over swayed his body, until it was almost touching the wheel of the sulky. As the horses came over the line, Biwabik within a neck of second place, it was plain that the animal was no longer controlled by its driver, in whose hands the reins were still held.

MRS. McLEAN DIED VERY SUDDENLY

THE END CAME ALMOST WITHOUT WARNING.

She Had Been Ill For Some Time, But Was About the House Last Evening, So Her Demise Was a Shock—Death of Mrs. Wiggin.

Mrs. George C. McLean died very suddenly at 4:40 o'clock this morning at her home, 604 Galena street, her death being due to heart failure and lung trouble.

Mrs. McLean had been ill for some time, but her death this morning was a great shock to the family and friends, as she had been about the house yesterday afternoon, although she complained last evening of being ill.

This morning she was much worse, apparently, and death came almost before the family could realize that her sufferings were ended.

Mrs. McLean was born at Mestaling, Scotland, on April 16, 1862, and her father, William Oliver, now lives at Birmingham, Alabama. Three sisters and four brothers survive her. The funeral will be held Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, from the residence, and Rev. E. H. Pence will officiate. The pall bearers will be Andrew Scott, William Hadden, Walter Little Jr., Walker Little, Jay Little and William Strommen.

Mrs. Rebekah H. Wiggin.

Rebekah H. Wiggin was born in Sandwich, New Hampshire, in the year 1827. When about two years of age, she gave herself fully to her Saviour and openly professed her faith, by union with the church. She was united in marriage to Richard Wiggin on the 15th of September, 1850. To this wedded pair six children were born, two of whom died at an early age. The eldest daughter, Myra, died soon after her marriage, and three survive, viz: Dr. T. W. B. Wiggin, of Chicago; Mrs. Dr. W. C. Dake, of Nashville, Tenn.; and Marion, the youngest daughter. The family home has been at Alleghany City, Penn.; Salem, Ohio; and since 1874 at Janesville, Wis. Deacon and Mrs. Wiggin have been for many years faithful and beloved members of the Baptist church and their home has been one of the sweetest Christian peace. Mrs. Wiggin was for several years one of the primary teachers in the Sunday school and greatly endeared herself to the children under her care. Her loving spirit won for her many friends who now sincerely mourn her departure. She quietly fell asleep in Jesus on the early morning of Aug. 29, 1896. The funeral services will be held at the house, No. 111 North Jackson on Sunday at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. James Mahaney.

Beloit, Aug. 28.—Mrs. James Mahaney, aged about 25 years, died last night from typhoid fever at her home on Mill street. She was formerly a Miss Knudsen of Clinton. She leaves a sorrowing husband and one child.

The German Seer.

Oshkosh, Appleton, Stevens Point, Wausau, and a number of other Wisconsin towns have in turn become excited by the wonderful revelations of Professor M. Wilhelm, the clairvoyant now in this city, at 53 North Franklin street. His performances in revealing and predicting the past and future are described as astonishing, and newspapers everywhere have devoted columns to describing his gift. BUFFALO BILL did not have as large a crowd at Rockford as at Janesville. The showmen's own estimates placed the afternoon attendance at 9,000 people, and the crowd in town was estimated at 16,000. The attendance here was placed at 10,000 in the afternoon and it was figured that 18,000 to 20,000 people were here.

THE Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway aside from the coaches furnished the Mineral Point Division for its G. A. R. through train to St. Paul over its picturesque route on Monday, August 31, we will furnish an especially fine coach for the exclusive use of Janesville folks, so that comfort as well as fine scenery is assured. Many of our people who have never been over this especially beautiful route are to number themselves among the favored. Train will leave Janesville at 9:40 o'clock Monday morning, August 31. Fare $6.00, round trip.

HE HOPES TO DIE IF HE VOTES WRONG

CAPTAIN BRIGHAM, OF CHICAGO, DISOWNS POPOCRACY.

He Fought For the Union Once and Is For Honest Money and Law and Order Now—The Populists Held No County Convention This Afternoon.

"I will not say that I will vote for McKinley; but I hope to die if I vote for Bryan," declared Captain H. G. Brigham, of Chicago, in the hearing of a reporter today.

Captain Brigham is, and always has been a democrat, but he is not a populist. He believes in honest money and law and order. He fought through the war for the honor of the nation, and now he refuses to support by his vote, a candidate who stands on the anarchistic Chicago platform and represents fifty-cent dollars with which to pay American workmen for 100-cents' worth of labor. Captain Brigham has always been an enthusiastic supporter of the democracy of Jefferson and Jackson, but popocracy is a horse of another color. He was positive in his declaration that he would not support the Chicago ticket, although he said that he could not vote for McKinley, either. Captain Brigham was on his way to St. Paul, to attend the G. A. R. reunion, and stayed at the Grand Hotel over night.

Populists Were Scarce.

If Rock county has any populism at all it should have been apparent this afternoon. The regular county convention was set for 2 o'clock at the court house.

It fizzled. Two years ago, when populism was little more than a name to Rock county people, but was offered as a remedy for all evils, an attendance of sixty-three was recorded.

This year people are wiser. They find from Mr. Bryan's speeches what populism really means, and they see that it means no good. They prefer even glittering generalities about the rich getting richer and the poor getting poorer to a platform that seems certain to make everybody poorer.

It isn't hard to explain, therefore, why the convention, today, was not a success. Populists and Bryanites are very much the same and people don't trust them.

The convention was called for 2 o'clock in the basement of the court house. About 145 Chairman Hyland walked in. He waited until 2:33 and the only man who looked in was a reporter.

At 2:33 the convention was declared adjourned.

S. B. Hallstead, proprietor of the second hand store, is about to move to Arkansas, where he has bought a farm, but said today that he had put off going until after election, as he wants to vote for Major McKinley, and against free coinage, believing that it is his duty to do so.

PLAY BALL TOMORROW AFTERNOON

Irish Team Will Meet the South Ends, From Fox Hall.

A game of ball will be played tomorrow afternoon between the famous Irish Team and the South Ends, from Fox Hall. SETTLE THE NATURE OF THE DISEASE

THE CLINTON PEOPLE DIED OF DIPHTHERIA.

All Doubt Is Removed By the Report of the Bacteriologist of the Illinois State Board of Health, Who Examined the Culture Tubes—One More Death.

There is no longer any doubt but what the disease that caused so many deaths at Clinton, was diphtheria.

Local physicians disagreed as to the nature of the disease, and the State Board of Health was appealed to. The representatives of the board who visited that city, at once stated that the disease was diphtheria, and ordered quarantine regulations enforced. Then it was decided to decide the matter by scientific tests. The tests were made, and the disease was declared to be diphtheria. Such is the report that has been received by the Board of Health, of which Dr. Q. O. Sutherland of this city, is a member. The Board did not want to be too decided in the matter and advised Dr. Covert, the health officer of Clinton, to obtain cultures of the disease, and send them to Chicago. This was done, and the contents of the tubes were examined by the bacteriologist of the Chicago Board of Health who pronounced the disease diphtheria, thus settling the discussion at rest.

Another McCloskey Boy Dead.

The last victim was Frank McCloskey, who died yesterday morning. The lad was ten years of age, and a brother of Frank McCloskey, from whom Undertaker J. O. Mayberry caught the disease, causing his death. Undertaker Frank D. Kimball was telegraphed of the boy's death yesterday, and George Davis went down to look after the remains. The body will probably be interred at Watertown.

AWAKENED INTEREST IN THE FAIR

Announcement at Buffalo Bill's Show Was a Great Help.

The announcement of the Rock county fair at the Buffalo Bill show, had a telling effect, for immediately after the entertainment, cattle owners engaged twenty-two stables. A number of the horse stalls have also been spoken for. This activity, so early in the season, means that an extra large stock exhibit may be expected. The Brothers of Fort Atkinson have engaged the merry-go-round privilege.

CHIEF ACHESON WARNS CYCLERS

The New Ordinance Will be Rigidly Enforced Next Week

Chief of Police Acheson wishes all bicycle riders to understand that the bicycle ordinance will be rigidly enforced next week. The chief says that all riders have had sufficient time to procure lamps and bells and no excuse will be accepted by the police from the riders hereafter.

Mexican Dollars.

In order to illustrate to the people more fully the meaning of free coinage of silver and the disadvantage of the same to all classes, particularly the working people, for a limited time, we will give out in change a Mexican silver dollar in place of fifty cents, as that is all they will pass for, not being exchangeable for gold dollars, as our silver dollar is at present.

Should we have free coinage of silver our silver dollar will at once depreciate in value and buy less than this Mexican dollar, as it contains less silver and could not then be exchanged for a gold dollar, yet by law you would have to take it for a dollar.

If you have any trouble in passing these Mexican dollars we will take them all off your hands at 50 cents each. J. M. Bostwick & Sons.

After examining samples of the "leading brands" of baking powder I have arrived at the conclusion that the Royal is superior in purity, leavening power and keeping qualities. It is a cream of tartar powder, entirely free from alum, lime, ammonia, and all deleterious ingredients. GEORGE S. COX, Wisconsin State Chemist.

C. A. WILSON,

A POSTER ROMANCE.

She posed within a poster gown
Beneath a poster tree;
A poster background wiggled down
Into a poster sea.
I mustered up a poster smile
And said, "Oh, queerest lass,
If you decide it worth your while,
Our troth shall come to pass!"
She viewed me with a poster frown
And cried, "It cannot be;
You have no weird, grotesque renown;
Too plain you are for me."
I wildly dashed upon my wheel;
I scorching it here and there,
Collided, spilled, and with a squeal,
I heard my garments tear.
All mud and blood and rags I ride
To her who did me fling;
She drooped upon my neck and sighed,
"Ah, now you're just the thing!"

HIS SPANISH GIRL.

I wondered why Barry should be sitting alone in the garden at 10 o'clock on a fine midwinter night. As I remembered him, he had been a sociable sort of fellow, fond of gaiety and pretty girls, and there was a cotillon going on indoors in the ballroom. I wondered, too, where his wife was, for he had told me he was married.

It was six years since I had last seen him. We had been boys together, just out of college, and I had visited him for a summer in the southern part of the state, where his home had always been and where his family was one of the few "old" ones which could rightly lay claim to gentility of other than mushroom growth.

After that visit I had gone back to San Francisco and to a truly San Francisco system of work, with the result that my health and spirits had steadily decreased, and at the end of these half dozen years I was obliged to come south for a long rest.

I had chosen this delightful and quiet hotel in the hope that I might not have my peace disturbed by any of my numerous acquaintances, but here, the first thing, came down upon us in our retreat a crowd of wordlings from town, bent on dancing a cotillon. Barry had come with them. Why, then, I repeated, was he not in the ballroom, and where was his wife? Perhaps she did not dance. But, in that case, why was either of them with the frivolous party that was turning our secluded spot into bedlam?

For a moment longer I let my gaze follow a girl in white satin, who had fascinated me. She was very young and brilliant and erect, with the face a painter would have chosen for Olympia's, wreathed in vines and serpents.

A high, unnaturally white forehead, with very black and very straight, thin brows, eyes long and flashing and cruel, a large nose, suggestive of the Hebrew, thin, red lips, continually parted in a wild sort of smile over wonderful teeth; a brilliant color, a long face, black hair, parted and twisted low on one of the most columnar necks I had ever seen.

It was not a beautiful face. In repose it was far from beautiful, but it was rarely in repose, and her laugh was the most bewildering thing imaginable. If she had been the heroine of a romance, men would have loved and hated her to the extent of the shedding of a great deal of blood, but in life today it is hard cash, not women's faces, that accomplish that. I took one last look at the demoniacal young face and then went to hunt up Barry.

We had already met in the office, but had not had time to exchange a dozen words. I wanted to talk over old times and new times, so, when I drew near him, I scraped my feet and coughed, as being the approved method of breaking in upon tete-a-tetes and meditation, and when he started I said: "Hello! That you, Barry?" and took a seat beside him on the bench. He offered me a cigar and gave me a light, from which I inferred I was not unwelcome.

"What are you doing, mooning under a pepper tree? It seems to me dancing more in your line, or doesn't the madam dance?"

"Yes; she dances."
"Oh!" I said, and feeling slippery ground, proceeded to avoid it. "Came down from town tonight with the party, didn't you?" I asked.

"Yes."
"Heaps of pretty women."
"Do you think so? I admire your northern women more. They have more distinction too. Ours fade early, be sides."

"Well, there's one girl there, by Jove, that makes up for a country of mediocrity—that witch of a flirt with the black hair and the very bare shoulders who is dancing with Thornton. If I didn't happen to have some one I like better in the city, I think I'd go in for her."

"But she's married, my friend."

"No? Who's the proud possessor?"

"I am."

"You don't say? Since when?"

"Since five years ago nearly."

"Well, it's a little late, but permit me to congratulate you. She is superb."

"Thanks." And then we lapsed into silence, and I reflected upon the facility with which a well meaning man may put his foot in it.

"You wonder at my not dancing, don't you?" he said abruptly. "Well, I used to like it. I like it now, but I found Mrs. Barry was already engaged, so there was nothing for me to do but to order my graceful and step out here—"

"DeWitt's Little Early Riser," he went on, "I had a romantic notion of and parting on this spot once, right under this very tree. It was just after I left you, six years ago—the meeting. I had ridden out from town on Nocturne. You remember her, the little black mare? I was walking her along a road which ran about six feet from here, just about where that Bon Silene bush is (it was before the days of the hotel), when all of a sudden she shied at what looked like a bundle of old clothes under this tree. No, no, I wasn't thrown, and I wasn't rescued by the heroine. It was not much of a shy, just enough to make me look again at the bundle and wonder what it was—it was dusk, you know—and then to notice that the bundle moved. "Wherefore I concluded it was a woman, probably a Mexican. It was a woman, or a very young girl, rather, and a deuced pretty one—a Mexican too. I could see that, even in the twilight, for her eyes gleamed in the dark as only a pair of Mexican eyes can gleam, and there was an added brightness, for the eyes were wet with tears. How do I know? I dismounted and found out, of course. It isn't likely I was going to see a woman prone on the ground a long way from the nearest habitation at nightfall and yet not offer her any assistance in my power.

"Well, as I said, she was crying stormily, and I set about finding out why. She told a most blood curdling tale of parental cruelty. It wasn't true. I've found that out since. She was only 16, but she could tell an extraordinarily good lie. As a matter of fact, she had found that a particular flame of hers was going to take another girl to some shindy. But the cruel treatment story did nicely, and I comforted her—she was such a mere child, I honestly thought. The lie was innocent enough. They aren't taught to think a falsehood anything serious. She was just a trifle shy and shrinking, like a little girl who puts her hands behind her and lowers her lashes at the advances of a stranger. In fact, that is exactly what she did. You should have seen those lashes. You'd have been just as big a fool as I was and have staid until the moon rose and made an appointment for another meeting, and eventually you'd have fallen as badly in love as I did.

"We always met under this tree. It was on her father's land, but quite out of sight of the house. She said that if he were to find us together he would redouble his brutality, but I assured her that if we were discovered we would run off at once and get married. The child was in one of her acquiescent moods and lowered her eyes and agreed. Of course I could only manage to get away on Saturday evenings or Sundays—this is the anniversary of our meeting, by the by; you see I cling to old memories—but we made the most of our time. I never had been so infatuated as I was with that Spanish child, with her tawdry, bright frocks, her shy ways, her gorgeous eyes and her broken English. She really was Spanish and not Mexican, I learned."

"They all are," I ventured.
"In this case it was beyond question, and there was American blood in her veins, too—a little of it."

"I insisted upon running away with her and getting married at sea, and after no end of refusals, she finally consented. Oh, I was far too smitten, too ensnared, to have it occur to me then how a match of the sort would hamper my career; how an ignorant country girl would prove a thorn in my flesh in the critical town clique; what a social drag she would be upon me! I knew the family would raise particular Cain, but when a man wants to marry in spite of his family he is apt to look upon it as a small stone to be kicked out of his path, and it takes him some time to discover that his pebble is a good sized boulder.

"But we quarreled." A long pause, while Barry lit another cigar from the old one and puffed it into glowing. I kept silence, and after awhile he went on: "You may think most women are fiery, but you should try a Spaniard. She got the cruel father—a harmless, shriveled up old fellow—to take her to town behind one of his trotters one day. She wanted to buy a gown, which she told him was for some kind of a baile out here, but it was really to get married in. I had brought her a sample of the stuff I wanted her to get; otherwise she'd have appeared in pink and green and white lace beyond a doubt.

"Well, she saw me on the street with a city girl. I believe it was Nora Clarke. You remember her? She was the merest acquaintance, as you know, and I treated her as one does any woman one happens to meet. We passed a confectioner's, and I, naturally enough, asked her to have some soda water. I don't suppose I'd have done it if I'd known that Ysadora was around, simply because I was aware that she wouldn't take it as an American fiancé would have done.

"But she was around, and she thought I was doing the deadly devoted, so the next Saturday, when we were to have run away, she met me with reproaches and tears and deviltry generally. She wouldn't listen to reason. She tore up the new gown and refused ever to marry me or any other man, and she used some strong but musical Spanish. I fancy she was more jealous than hurt, but I—well, I was completely done up. To say that she looked more beautiful than ever would be to put it weakly. When I saw her disappear for good over behind that clump of eucalyptus, I was on the verge of suicide. Pity I stopped at the verge.

"The fellow who has since built the hotel bought this spot, that saw her off meeting and our parting, when her old father died, a year or so later.

"You came along just as I was going over old memories and wishing—I suppose I should not say it—wishing that it were six years ago, and that I was still blindly infatuated with my Spanish sweetheart of 16."

I am not fond of the modern unfinished story. I want to see the heroine laid in her grave by a host of weeping grandchildren, and the hero following her contentedly soon after, so I asked, "But what became of the girl?"

"Nothing ever 'becomes' in real life," he answered.

"Where is she now?" I persisted.

"In the ballroom, dancing the cotillon with Thornton."

"Then—"

"Yes. We made it up after her father's death and were married—on dry land—and have lived happily ever after," he added, shrugging his shoulders and throwing away his cigar. "Gwendolen Overton in San Francisco Argonaut."

C. S. CLELAND—Phoebus Block.

AN ORDINANCE regulating the storage and sale of gunpowder and other explosives.

Mayor and Common Council of the city of Janesville do ordain as follows:

Section 1. No person shall keep, sell or give away gunpowder in any quantity within the city of Janesville without permission in writing signed by the mayor of said city, provided however, that this section shall not apply to persons keeping gunpowder in quantities less than five pounds for their own personal use, or in magazines as hereinafter provided.

Section 2. No person shall keep or store in any building in said city any nitro-glycerine, dynamite, giant powder, or other similar explosive more violent in its nature than gunpowder.

Section 3. No dealer in gunpowder shall keep or store any quantity thereof greater than fifty pounds at any one time at his place of business in said city.

Section 4. Every dealer in gunpowder shall keep such powder in a safely constructed box of such form and size as shall be approved by the chief engineer of the fire department. Such box shall be painted yellow, with the word "powder" printed or painted thereon in black letters not less than five inches in length, and shall be fitted with handles so that the same may be easily moved in case of fire, and such box shall be kept only in such part of any dealer's place of business as may be directed by said Chief Engineer.

Section 5. All gunpowder kept within the corporate limits of said city, except as hereinbefore provided, shall be stored in the powder magazine established by the city, which magazine shall be under the control of a keeper to be appointed by the common council; and the common council may by order of resolution grant permission to any quarryman or person engaged in any industry requiring the use of powder, to keep the same upon the premises occupied by him, in a magazine to be approved by said chief engineer, and at a distance of not less than twenty rods from any dwelling house or other occupied building.

Section 6. The keeper of the city magazine shall receive all gunpowder delivered for storage at such magazine, and shall give his receipt therefor, and be responsible for the same, and shall, upon demand, deliver any powder stored in said magazine to the owner thereof, or his agent.

Section 7. The keeper of said city magazine is hereby authorized to receive and collect as his fees from the owner of, or person depositing powder in said magazine, the sum of one cent for each pound of powder so deposited by him if the amount so deposited does not exceed fifty pounds, and one half a cent for each pound in excess of fifty pounds.

Section 8. It is hereby made the duty of the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, to see that the provisions of this ordinance are observed; and he is hereby authorized to enter any store or other building within said city to ascertain if the same are kept in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance; and if any quantity of gunpowder in excess of fifty pounds is found in such store or building, the said chief engineer may cause such excess to be removed to said city magazine at the expense of the person owning the same.

Section 9. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance, or who shall resist the chief engineer of said city when acting in pursuance of his duty, shall be fined by the common council, or by the city judge, the sum of not more than fifty dollars, or less than ten dollars.

Section 10. All orders, ordinances and resolutions, containing a fine with the provisions herein contained, shall be repealed.

Section 11. This ordinance shall be in force and take effect from and after its passage and publication, which publication shall be for three, six, nine and twelve months.

Passed Aug. 24, 1896.
A. E. BADGER, City Clerk.
S. BAINES, Mayor.

STATE OF WISCONSIN—In Probate Court for Rock County—In Probate.

Notice is hereby given that, at a special term of the county court to be held in and for said county at the court house, in and for the city of Janesville, in said county, on the 11th day of September, 1896, at 9 o'clock a. m., the following matter will be heard and considered:

The application of Henry G. Love for the appointment of an administrator of the town of LaPrairie, in said county, deceased—Dated August 22 1896.

"A Junk-Shop,"
"Two-Cent Apple Butter,"
A "Blacksmith," "Rotten Stock" and

is a poor combination from which to expect a production of anything respectable in the job printing line.
A "junk shop" means a worn-out assortment of type, rules, etc.; a "blacksmith" is a bunglesome printer; "two-cent apple butter" is synonymous of the poorest quality of printing ink; "rotten stock" is poor-made and cheap paper; and a "hunchback" is a press which is so old that it has naturally worn out of shape and usage.

ACCESSORIES OF COSTUMES.

Collars and Frills—Antique Jewelry. White Costumes, Veils, Gloves, Etc. The satin band collar, draped or plain, still worn, but an addition of some sort made at the top. The addition may consist of points, tabs or a ruche of some kind. Often it is a frill of accordion plaited muslin, edged with narrow valenciennes lace. All these arrangements are kept in position by means of fine wires run in invisibly, as are the medici collars, which are also much worn.

Antique earrings of value may be altered to form rings or bracelets without change-ing the mounting at all. Many Parisian women have this done, esteeming the ancient setting one of the great charms of the jewel. Of course it is necessary that the added gold should be of the same color as the original metal. In the case of Louis Quinze and Louis Seize jewelry, now much prized, the gold is very yellow.

White continues to have an immense vogue. Vests, revers, gloves, gowns, petticoats, hats, veils, bodices, all are white. We are even threatened, as is periodically the case, with white stockings, but no woman of spirit will submit to that position except when she wears white shoes.

The palmy days of lingerie have returned. Not only is fine underwear now included in that category, but those gowns and bodices of batiste and nainsook that are elaborated with fine tucks, frills, embroidery and lace. There are a charm and daintiness about such apparel that nothing else possesses, an implication of delicacy and refinement that is not always justified by the wearer.

The illustration shows a gown of mauve and pale green lace taffeta. The skirt has three large godets at the back and is ornamented around the foot with white ruche-like embroidery, which runs up in a point on either side of the tablier. The bodice of embroidery opens over a full chemisette and guimpe of green gauze. The close taffeta sleeves have medium sized taffeta puffs. The belt of green silk is adorned on each side by a choux retaining a drapery of white lace. The cravat is of white tulle; the hat of green straw, trimmed with green tulle, roses and foliage.

TOILET ACCESSORIES.

Embroidered Chemisettes and Vests—Costumes of Crepe de Chine.

Those women who favor black and white costumes need not fear to produce an effect of mourning if they will add a cluster of colored flowers to the hat. This touch of brightness changes the character of the costume without effecting its becomingness.

Chemisettes of embroidery or linen are a great aid in varying the costume. They are particularly effective when formed in bretelles of ribbon and worn with a wide corselet belt. The collar is usually of the same color as the belt.

Crepe de chine is having a great success. It composes many charming costumes, and is seen in great variety of color and style.

The modification of sleeves slowly but surely increases. It is true that many costumes of the first elegance have still sleeves of decided amplitude; but each day shows an increase of the number of close sleeves, which are tight almost to the armpit, where they afford a contrast to the shoulder drapery, which often takes the form of a butterfly or bow. Little by little the top of the sleeve decreases in importance, and soon the disappearance of all extra fullness will be complete. According to our present ideas, that will be a disadvantage, for the wide shouldered effect has made the waist seem very small. There is a French proverb, something like the English one, "A new broom sweeps clean," which, being interpreted, signifies, "Whatever is new is beautiful," so doubtless we shall soon take to narrow shoulders again and wonder how the wide puffs were ever tolerated.

An illustration is given of a princess gown of pink and green changeable taffeta, having a white ground with narrow stripes. The skirt opens over a tablier of embroidered gauze, gathered at the belt, with a lining of pale pink silk. The full vest of embroidered gauze is framed in a fichu of guipure de venise, which forms revers and epaulets and is retained at the waist by two ornamental buttons. The belt is of moss green velvet, the collar and choux are of white gauze. The short sleeves are terminated by two frills of white lace.

"Go back to your practice," replied the lawyer, promptly. "You have no case. Ten dollars, please."

"Now that I have told you my symptoms," said the lawyer to the doctor a few days later, "what would you advise me to do?"

"Go back to your practice," replied the physician, promptly. "You have nothing seriously wrong with you. Ten dollars, please."

A man may dress as well as his own good judgement and the assistance of an artistic tailor may elect. He may take his "tubs" but if his digestive organs are out of order, he will have an unwholesome appearance. His complexion and the white of his eyes will have a yellowish cast. His tongue will be coated, appetite poor, his teeth rusty, his breath abominable. He is one big, unmistakable sign of constipation.
